QUOTAS ASSIGNED IN THIS DISTRICT

Jackson County Asked to Contribute
$7,874.48 for The Inter-
Church World Movement.

BASED ON WAR WORK QUOTAS

Money Will Be Asked of Those Who
Are Not Affiliated With Any
Religious Denomination.

The Rev. Walfred Lindstrom, district director of the Inter-Church World Movement, has received a list of the money quotas assigned for the eight counties under his supervision. The contributions to be made in this class will come from individuals who are not affiliated with any religious denomination. The various churches have conducted or are now waging campaigns for their respective apportionments. Those in charge of the Inter-Church World Movement hope to carry the campaign into every family in the United States and for this reason the financial drives are made among church members, who are placed in Class A, and also among non-church members who constitute Class B.

Jackson county has a quota of $7,874.48. This is the largest quota given to any of the eight counties in this district with the exception of Floyd which was assigned a quota of $9,861.45.

The quotas for the eight counties in Mr. Lindstrom's district follow:

Clark, $7,377.34; Crawford, $2,227.86; Floyd, $9,861.45; Harrison, $3,785.46; Washington, $4,153.61; Orange, $3,387.23; Scott, $1,385.16; Jackson, $7,874.48. The total amount to be raised in this district is $40,052.59.

The quotas were based on the war work campaign allotments, 26.5 per cent. of each county quota being assigned for the Inter-Church movement. Mr. Lindstrom has established district headquarters in this city and has effective an active organization for the accomplishment of the task before him.

He died several years ago.

Many Unincorporated Concerns
Have Already Answered Supplemental Tax Questions.

AGENT OF STATE BOARD HERE

Ready to Explain Purpose of Form to Dealers—Says Opposition is Due to Misunderstanding.

That no concerted effort will be made by the unincorporated concerns in this city to challenge the authority of the state tax board to require such firms to file supplemental tax blanks, is the belief of E. S. Himebaugh, assessor of Jackson township. A number of these firms have already answered the questions asked by the state board, it is stated, and the others are expected to furnish the information within the time specified by the tax commissioners. Mr. Himebaugh has explained to dealers who have entered protests that it is his duty to demand that the supplemental blanks be filed and that if any firm or partnership refuses to comply with such request he has no other alternative but to report them to the state board. Dealers who oppose the blank form recognize that Mr. Himebaugh must conduct his work in conformity with the rules laid down by the state board and that he has no option as to what course he will take.

Recently a movement was on foot among some unincorporated concerns here to contest the rule of the state tax board requiring unincorporated firms to file statements in addition to the regular tax schedule, revealing their financial condition. Some of the business men affected by the order were of the opinion that the

The Indiana University R. O. T. C. band which gave a band concert and drill at Brownstown last night attracted hundreds of people to the town. A special program was arranged by the Brownstown people, one feature of which was a basketball game between the I. U. basketball team and a picked Brownstown five which resulted in favor of the former team by a score of 39 to 16. The students enjoyed the hospitality of Brownstown people over night and this morning left for Salem where they will give a concert and drill tonight. The delegation was scheduled to go from Brownstown to Columbus and give a concert in this city enroute but a change was made in the program and Columbus has been omitted.

The students are traveling in seven large army trucks and were accompanied by seventeen army officers and truck drivers from Camp Taylor. From Salem they will go to Paoli and from there to West Baden where they will end their tour Saturday night.

VOTING BY WOMEN IS OPEN QUESTION

Confusion Exists Relative to Their Participation in the Primaries

DECISION TO BE MADE SOON

Election Commissioners to be Appointed by Governor Will Settle Controversy.

Although conflicting reports have been in circulation here and elsewhere in Indiana relative to the participation of women in the primaries to be held Tuesday, May 4, the question is still open and final decision may be left to the state board of election commissioners to be named by Governor Goodrich. An Indianapolis dispatch recently stated that the attorney-general had ruled that women were entitled to vote in the primaries but this ruling, it appears, did not refer to the selection of presidential candidates.

The status of women voting for presidential candidates in the primaries, depends upon the ratification of the suffrage amendment to the federal constitution, it is stated, and if

of Candidacy in the Fourth District.

By United Press.
Indianapolis, April 2—Charles Conway, Democrat, of Friendship, Ind., today filed the declaration of his candidacy in the congressional race in the Fourth district.

Announcement that Charles Conway had entered the congressional primary race came as a surprise to local Democrats. Clarence E. Custer, of Columbus, Dr. J. A. Craig, of Greenwood and Harry A. Campfield of Batesville, have been waging aggressive campaigns and it was generally believed here that no other aspirants would announce. Tomorrow is the last day for filing declarations of candidacy.

By United Press.
Washington, April 2—President Bert Jewell of the railroad department, American Federation of Labor, today notified President Wilson that 2,000,000 railway workers will appeal to the transportation labor board for wage increases totalling $1,000,000,000 annually. Jewell forwarded to the White House the correspondence between railway executives and union leaders which resulted in the breakup yesterday of the joint conference called by President Wilson to agree to new wage schedules. The union men charged the railway executives with refusal to comply with the Esch-Cummins transportation act. This was in a letter to Chairman Whittier of the

VIOLENT PROTEST MADE AGAINST HOME RULE ACT

Sinn Fein Leader Denies the Organi-

By United Press.
Dublin, April 2—The apparent success of Prime Minister Lloyd George's new home rule bill and charges in the London press that Thomas MacCurtain, lord mayor of Cork, recently assassinated, was killed by the Sinn Feins have aroused a storm of protest here today against British rule in Ireland. Newspapers were unanimous in their attacks upon the prime minister's new plan for home rule.

"The bill surrenders three-fourth of Ireland to anarchy and plants a cancer in the very heart of the empire," the Irish Times declared. The charge that MacCurtain was killed by the Sinn Feins of which he was a member, was denied by Arthur Griffiths, acting president of the organization.

DEMOCRATS SEE FAILURE OF MOVE

Declare Senate Republicans Will be Unable to Force Passage of Peace Resolution.

OPPOSITION OF PRESIDENT

Wilson Said to Have Told Advisors
That He Will Refuse to Sign Resolution.

By United Press.
Washington, April 2—Republican leaders in congress will not be able to muster enough votes to pass their peace resolution over a veto of the President, leading house Democrats declared today after a canvass.

Both Champ Clark, Missouri, Democratic floor leader and Representative Flood, Virginia ranking minority member of the foreign affairs committee, stated it would be impossible for the Republicans to force the resolution through by a two-thirds majority necessary to override a veto.

President Wilson has indicated to close advisers that he will not sign the resolution, which if Democratic predictions as to the house vote are true, means that a legal peace will not come until the senate and the president have agreed on some kind of a treaty. This in all probability will not be until after the elections unless the president yields to the senate's reservations.

Democrats are massing their forces for an attack on the resolution when it comes up in the house. Pressure is being exerted by administration leaders outside congress. Homer S. Cummings chairman of the Democratic national committee, is expected to confer with house leaders during the next few days and urge them to stand by the president.

Determination of Democratic party leaders to use the Republican peace resolution against its authors as campaign material was evidenced, Democrats said today by the statement of Homer Cummings with regard to the resolution.

Cummings who said he had "no difficulty" finding out what President Wilson thought about things, declared the peace resolution was the "lowest ebb of moral incapacity to which Republican leadership has yet sunk."

INCREASED WAGES PASSED TO PUBLIC

Higher Coal Prices to Become Effective Immediately. Operators
Have Announced.

INDIANA COAL IS HIGHER

Federal Regulation of Prices Removed When New Agreement Goes Into Force.

By United Press.
Chicago, April 2—A general increase in retail coal prices will be passed on to the general public today or tomorrow to pay for wage increases to miners retail coal dealers of the middle west predicted today. With the removal of federal regulations of coal prices effective yesterday, coal operators announced increases immediately effective.

Today some retailers were still selling at the March prices, but this, they explained, was due to the fact that the new prices had not been received from the operators. Increases will range from 25 cents to $1 a ton.

Chicago dealers today said they expected to quote higher prices this week. Only one increase has been effected. Pocahontas coal has been boosted $1 a ton. Consumers in Indiana have already been assessed.

Dealers have added 25 cents a ton to the price of Indiana nut and slack and West Virginia split.

At Detroit, Oklahoma City, St. Paul and Denver there have been no increases, but dealers say there will be. Coal in Denver today was selling slightly below March first prices, due to a "glut on the market."

At Des Moines reports indicated a general advance of ten per cent. throughout Iowa, an average increase of 75 cents a ton. Even Los Angeles boosted its coal prices. Coal there today was selling for $16 a ton as compared with $15 last year.

At Milwaukee, the price of coke was advanced 75 cents for all grades.

Dealers in St. Paul raised prices slightly. Coal delivered to factories was raised five cents and to residences thirty cents.

Coal in San Francisco was $1 a ton higher today than last September when it sold for $14.50 a ton.

An increase of 45 cents a ton was recorded at Springfield, Ills. Dealers in Lincoln Neb. predict that prices are going 25 per cent. higher.

Prospects for increased cost of coal this month is jumping prices of building materials. All prospects requiring coal in their manufacture are affected.

MINOR RAILROAD STRIKES THREATENED IN MID-WEST

Switchmen on Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad Quit at Chicago.

By United Press.
Chicago, April 2—Minor strikes of railroad employees were threatened or in progress throughout the middle west today. Following a walkout of 3,000 Pennsylvania railroad employees at Ft. Wayne, Ind., yesterday, 700 switchmen and switch tenders of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad here were on strike today. They demanded a pay increase of nearly 50 per cent. The night shift of the shopmen at Ft. Wayne also joined the strikers who went out yesterday morning. The total number now out in that district is estimated at 3,200. These men are striking to enforce the "closed shop." An embargo has been placed on freight shipments there.

NEW COAL PRICES.

The new agreement between the coal miners and operators, effective April 1, under which the former consent to continue work in consideration of a 20 per cent. wage increase, means that retail coal prices will be advanced immediately. The operators have not decided just how much will be added to the present prices but have announced that the increase will not be less than a $1 or a $1.25 a ton. This is sufficient to let the consumer know that he will pay well for the boost given the miners.

The miners' representatives present figures to show that the increased scale ought not result in an advance of more than 25 cents a ton. Possibly they are not taking into account any added expense which would be charged to the consumer after the coal is mined and before it is delivered, but the most liberal figures will not warrant an increase of $1.25 in the retail price.

Let us suppose that the new wage scale means an advance of 30 cents a ton. The operator will expect a profit of one-third on the increase or 10 cents. The jobber will increase his handling charges at least the same amount and the retailer would also be entitled to a similar profit. The total, including the increase at the mines, would not exceed 60 cents. These profits, it must be borne in mind, are in addition to those already made by the operator, jobber and retailer.

But if the operators decide to advance the price $1.25 a ton the consumer is practically helpless. He has no commission to which he may appeal. He must reply entirely upon the honesty and fair dealing of the operator. The public is of the opinion that the present high coal prices

THE PRIMARY LAW.

Despite the operation of the primary law there are some political leaders who desire that the delegates to the national conventions be uninstructed. W. G. McAdoe, a Democratic presidential candidate, has appealed to the Democrats in several states to send delegates without definite instructions. Some Republican leaders want the nomination to be determined by the delegates without regard to the sentiment in the states from which they come.

The effect of an uninstructed delegation is the same as if the primary law were not in operation. This law is designed to get the majority views of the voters and if it is not used for that purpose it would be better that we return to the convention system. The primary law is expensive. Despite arguments to the contrary only men who have unlimited means are financially able to make the race.

So long as we have the primary law the delegates to the national conventions ought to be guided by the sentiment of the voters. The law provides that no state delegation is bound by the primary decision until a candidate receives a majority vote. Frequently this is impossible because of the number of candidates in the field for a particular office, yet if the vote is disregarded altogether the purpose of the primary system is defeated. Whether the primary law is good or bad, we ought to carry out its intention so long as it remains on the statute books.

Great Britain, recently emerged from a World conflict, doesn't seem to worry much about the declaration of war proclaimed by the leader of the rebel forces in Turkey.

SOCIAL EVENTS

SUMNER—GLASSON.

A very pretty wedding took place Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Rev. R. T. Gwyn, 316 University Avenue, Indianapolis, when Miss Edna Sumner, of Seymour, became the bride of Claude Mason Glasson, a prosperous Redding township farmer.

Before returning to this city Mr. and Mrs. Glasson will visit in Philadelphia and other eastern points. They will be at home to their friends after April 15th at their newly furnished home, north of Reddingtown.

The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sumner, corner Poplar and Fifth streets. She graduated from the local high school with the class of 1917, and is also a graduate of the Seymour Business College.

The groom who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Glasson, of Redding township, graduated from the Shields high school in 1916, and until recently was employed in the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad offices in this city.

Rev. and Mrs. Gwyn entertained Thursday evening at their home in Indianapolis, with a six o'clock dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Glasson.

Both the bride and groom are popular in Seymour society circles and have the best wishes of their many friends.

INDIANA STUDY CLUB.

The fifth and last lecture of a series by Mrs. Demarehus Brown, Indianapolis, before the Indiana Study Club was given Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Thomas Groub, corner Poplar and Seventh streets. The subject was "Disraeli."

Mrs. R. J. Barbour, president of the club, opened the meeting, introducing the speaker.

Mrs. Brown took up the study of Disraeli in three chapters, or personalities, as a dandy, a novelist and a politician. Benjamin Disraeli, despite his heritage, was one of the most powerful men of the nineteenth century.

Disraeli's ancestors originally were in Spain, but left that country because of the persecutions by Queen Isabelle and King Ferdinand, going to Venice, where they resided for some time. Here the family name was changed to Disraeli, honoring the Italian God, Jacob. The grandfather of Benjamin Disraeli was the first of his family to go to England.

Benjamin Disraeli was born in 1804, and when he was thirteen years of age the family went into the church of England. Because of his struggles in public school life on account of his race, he was educated under private tutorship. At the age of twenty-two his first novel was published, Vivian Gray. This was

Another tempting morsel made with BREAD

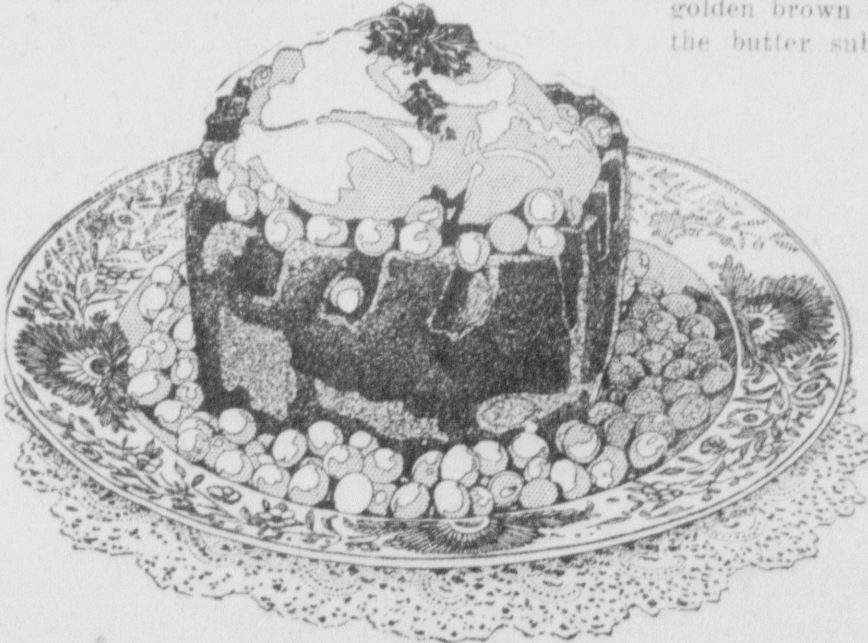

Besides its tastiness, its wholesomeness, its economy, bread can be used in the most savory and appetizing of dishes.

STAR Bread with its appealing flavor is the bread to use. Look at the dainty combination—

EGGS AND GREEN PEAS

1 slice Good Bread 3 inches thick	2 cups milk
6 hard cooked eggs	1/2 lemon
1 cup cooked peas	4 tablespoons butter substitute, salt and pepper to taste
4 tablespoons flour

Shell and cut each egg in half. Cut slice of Star Bread to suit serving dish, notch it round with a sharp knife and scoop it out so as to form large case. Fry golden brown in hot fat. Melt half the butter substitute in small pan, stir in flour, add milk, and stir till it boils. Season with salt, pepper and lemon juice. Lay in pieces of egg and let heat gently. Add remainder of butter substitute to peas, shake them over the fire and season with pepper. Put a layer of peas in bottom of bread croute, and fill up with eggs and sauce and lay it on

MINSTREL.

The Minstrel given at the Park Mission last night was a great success. Fully fifteen minutes before the program began every seat in the house was taken and standing room was at a premium. There was a good attendance.

After the opening song a telegram was received announcing that the end men had missed their car but would be present later in the evening. The impatient audience could not be asked to await their arrival so it was decided to continue the program without them. At this time however, both entered shouting "April Fool," and the minstrel progressed nicely in jokes and song. Two solos, "Indiana Moon" and "That Tantalizing Fox Trot Melody," rendered by Leonard Bartlett, were well applauded. Earl Smyth sang "Let the Rest of the World Go By," to the delight of those in attendance.

The Hen Roost Club, composed of Lawson Williams, Merrill Harsh, Fred Nuss and Earl Dieck, caused much laughter when they held their regular meeting as the opening number of the second part. A specialty by Grover Marquette and Robert Clark, featuring mental telepathy, was quite humorously delivered, as the second number. A monologue by John McMurray was next after which the closing songs were rendered.

The assistance of Mrs. John McMurray, at the piano and Norman Barkman, violinist, added much to the evening's program. Mr. Barkman and daughters rendered several selections at the opening and during the intermission that were appreciated by all. It is estimated that about $50 was netted which will be given to the Park Mission building fund by the Who-Do class.

The members of the general committee in charge of the arrangements are Mrs. D. A. Baird, chairman, Mrs. Elizabeth Brethauer and Miss Sadie Grace Myers. The members of the entertaining committee are Mrs. T. E. Ross, Mrs. Elsie Moses, Mrs. Kate Shepard and Mrs. Emma Lewis.

COULDN'T RAISE HAND TO HEAD

Bloomington Man is Back On Job Every Day Now—Gains Thirty-three Pounds.

"Well, sir, I only weighed one hundred and twenty-nine pounds when I commenced taking Tanlac, and now I tip the scales at one hundred and sixty-two, which gives me a gain of thirty-three pounds, and I claim that any medicine that will help a man that much who has been suffering for twelve long years is worth talking about," said I. T. Augustus, who lives at Hill's Hotel, Bloomington, Ill., the other day.

"I spend most of my spare time telling folks about Tanlac," continued Mr. Augustus, "for it is the only medicine that has done me any good at all since I commenced to have rheumatism and stomach trouble a good many years ago. Nobody except myself will ever know how I suffered during all those years. Sometimes my legs would actually swell to almost twice their natural size, and the pain was so severe I could hardly stand it. My arms were in the same condition and more than half the time I couldn't raise my hands to my head. Then my stomach went back on me, and everything I ate would disagree with me and cause me to suffer like blue blazes afterwards. Sometimes I would have such bad cramping pains I would have to call in a doctor before I could get any relief. As the years went by, my condition gradually got worse, and I finally had to give up my job as I was not able to do my work."

"I tell you, I was badly discouraged over my condition, and I hardly knew which way to turn, but one of my friends told me about Tanlac, and advised me to give it a trial. Well, I got a bottle of this medicine, and it's the honest truth, I was feeling like a different man by the time I had finished my first bottle. I saw then that I had found the right medicine, and I just kept on taking Tanlac until it finally overcame my troubles completely, and now I am as well and strong as I ever was in my life. I never had such an appetite, and everything I eat agrees with me all right. The rheumatism has left me altogether, and I never have a sign of stomach trouble any more. I am back on the job every day in the week now, and just feel fine all the time. I sure believe in Tanlac, and as long as I live I will praise it for overcoming my troubles after everything else I tried had failed."

Tanlac is sold in Seymour by Maxon's Pharmacy, and in Crothersville by C. W. Taulman, and in Brownstown by Chas. Brock.

RAIL WORKERS ASK INCREASED WAGES

railroad executive wage committee who notified the union men the executives could not go on with the joint conference. Whittier wrote that the wage demands were too large for the executives to grant on their own responsibility without the approval of the public.

Jewell's reply read in part: "Your committee has decided to comply with the plain provision of the law and assume the responsibility of railroad management with regard thereto and has not given consideration to the request of employees for reasonable and just pay based on the provision of section 307 of the transportation act.

"Your entire deliberation seemed to have been predicated upon the sole basis of the cost without regard to the justness of the request of railroad employees

"The decision of your committee

forces us to appeal to the labor board under provisions of the transportation act and to so notify President Wilson."

Rheumatism Back on the Job With Its Old-time Fury

No Let-Up In Its Torture.

If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, why waste time with liniments, lotions and other local applications that never did cure Rheumatism, and never will? Do not try to rub the pain away, for you will never succeed. Try the sensible plan of finding the cause of the pain. Remove the cause, and there can be no pain. You will never be rid of Rheumatism until you cleanse your tax commissioners were exceeding their authority and that they had no power to demand any information other than that which is required in the general tax schedule.

The matter was taken up in an informal way at a recent meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. The committee that was appointed to conduct the investigation has been informed by some attorneys that the state board probably does not have authority to require this statement to be filed. At the same time, it is admitted, that the state board is authorized by the new tax law to lay down certain rules and regulations for the conduct of its affairs and that if the proprietor of any unincorporated business refuses to answer the questions in the supplemental blank he may be called before the state board. It is said that if any local dealer who refuses to fill out the blank should be summoned to appear before the board more than likely he would be asked the very questions contained in the blank. It is also pointed out that he would likely be questioned more closely in a personal interview than if the blank is filled out as required by the board.

The state tax commissioners are giving considerable attention to the situation here and its representatives have paid this city several visits for the purpose of checking up the progress that is made in the assessment of property in Jackson township. John Jamison, an agent of the board, was in the city yesterday for the second time within a week. He said he would be glad to discuss the purpose of the supplemental tax blank with any merchant or dealer who thought that the board is acting beyond its authority and he was confident that misunderstandings could be quickly cleared away. The confusion, in his opinion, is due to misunderstanding on the part of individuals as to the purpose of the questions.

Mr. Jamison reiterated that the questions asked of the unincorporated firms are practically the same as those asked of the corporations last year. He said there is no question but that the legislature has clothed the state tax board with all the authority which it has assumed and that the regulations which have been promulgated and which may appear drastic at this time have been formulated in the interest of the taxpayers so that assessments will be made equitably throughout the state. The blanks could not be made to apply to unincorporated concerns last year, he said, because of the rush of work attending the inauguration of the new law. Mr. Jamison said it is not the purpose of the tax blank to delve into any individual's business and that the questions do not require that earnings be listed. He said the blank is merely a supplemental form which will be considered along with the personal property schedule and was issued so as to place corporations and unincorporated concerns on the same basis so far as property valuations for purposes of taxation are concerned.

To The Farmers and Fruit Growers of Jackson County.

It is our pleasure to be back with you again to carry out the three years free service contract in the way of pruning, spraying and replacing all stock that has died, free of charge, sold you in 1918-1919. When this company first opened this territory many people were jealous of us and thought we would never return after the first delivery, because the position which we offer the farmer is so creamy. But this is the third year we have been in this section and you who now have these orchards growing are doubtless pleased with quality of stock received and also the service which we have endeavored to give. To those who have not bought, we refer you to your fortunate neighbor who did buy and now has his plants maturing and getting ready to bear fruit. Get in line with him by placing your order with us, and our Liberal Contract will assure your getting best goods and perfect service.

Some of our representatives hope to see you soon and add to our long list of pleased customers or to enlarge your contract if already bought of us.

Assuring you of our hearty appreciation of past business, and thanking you in advance for any courtesies you may extend, we are

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN!

A New and Happy Helper

Joy Soap is one of the brightest products ever introduced to lighten the household cares of a woman.

As sewing machines, vacuum cleaners and ranges have eased and lightened some phases of woman's work, so Joy Soap has almost worked miracles in lessening house cleaning and dish washing problems.

It is a real worker—not a "work-with-it." Joy cuts up dirt and grease itself—you don't have to scrub it up. With just the lightest rubbing, so as to mix the lather in, Joy cleans clothes, windows, dishes and everything.

It is a distinct pleasure to use, because it is firm and white—not "soapy," sticky and yellow. Because of the firm, fine body, Joy lasts much longer and gives you greater returns for your money.

Women who try it are certainly delighted with it. They declare that it helps them to quicken and lessen their work, in a better way, leaving them more time for the little hours of leisure which are ordinarily eaten into by house cleaning.

It is fine to think that Joy Soap may be purchased at the same price you pay for other soaps. It brings you much more—yet only costs the same. Ask your grocer.

Since taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy all this has disappeared and my only trouble now is to make enough dough to buy all the food I'd like to eat." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. All druggists.

WORKS HARD TO AVERT FLU EPIDEMIC

Government and City Health Officials Warn People to Keep Clean.

Stay Away from People with Coughs and Colds.

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza," says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply. He advises an inexpensive home-made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and soothe and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Pour three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and sniff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy.

Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arcine in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

The Fordson is light, weight 2,700 pounds.

The Fordson Tractor is economical—both to buy and to operate—two and one-quarter gallons of kerosene per acre plowed is a fair average.

The Fordson Tractor is powerful—will pull two 14-inch plows in the stiffest soil or drive a threshing machine—maintains 1,800 pounds draw-bar pull at plowing speed—2,500 pounds in low gear. Twenty to twenty-two H. P. is available at the belt pulley.

The Fordson Tractor is durable—simple, rugged, accessible in design with few parts. The toughest steels which science can produce are used to give strength and durability instead of depending on heavy masses of metal. NICHOLSON

"They were spoiling my appetite; I was perfectly aware of that. I had ordered the best luncheon I knew how to compose, and they were doing full justice to it; but I was acting, I knew, like a resentful boy."

"I love you that way," said Alice as I stared vacantly at my plate. "But you really are not making yourself disagreeable to us—really he is not, Constance!"

Mrs. Farnsworth affirmed this. I knew that I was merely being rude, and the consciousness of this was not uplifting. At the luncheon hour the influx of shoppers gives the Tyringham a cheery tone, and all about us were people apparently conversing sanely and happily. The appearance of Uncle Bash's ghost in the familiar dining room would have been a welcome diversion. I was speculating as to just what he would say about his widow and the whole mess at Barton when Mrs. Farnsworth addressed me pleadingly.

"If you knew that we want you to play with us only a few days longer—three days, shall we say, Alice?—if you knew that then we'll untangle everything, wouldn't you be nice—very nice?"

In spite of myself I couldn't resist this appeal. I was more and more impressed by the fineness, the charm of Mrs. Farnsworth. When she dropped the make-believe foolishness in which she indulged quite as amusingly as Alice, she appeared to be a very sensible person. The humor danced in her eyes now, but her glance was more than an appeal; it was a command.

"If you knew that our troubles are not at all the troubles you're thinking about, but very different—"

"Please—pardon me," I muttered humbly, and wished that Alice were not so bewitching in a sailor hat. It may have been the hat or only Mrs. Farnsworth's pleading tone that brought me to a friendlier attitude toward the universe and its visible inhabitants. The crowd thinned out, but we lingered, talking of all manner of things.

"We must come in again very soon," said Alice. "And next time we shan't run away, which was very naughty. I suppose when you begin a story you just have to keep it going or it will die on your hands. That's the way with our story, you know. Of course it's unkind to mystify you; but you are in the story just as we are."

My mystification was certainly deep enough without this suggestion that I was a mere character in a tale whose awkward beginning aroused only the gravest apprehensions as to the conclusion. She looked at her watch and continued: "I'm so absurd—really I am, in ever so many ways, that no one would ever put me in a book. Everyone would say no such person ever existed! It's incredible! And so I have to pretend I'm in a story all the time. It's the only way I can keep happy. And so many people are in my story now, not only Montani and the poor fellow locked up at Barton—oh, what if he should escape! Constance, it would be splendid if he should escape!"

"You didn't finish your enumeration of characters," I suggested. "Is my part an important one or am I only a lay figure?"

"My dear boy," cried Mrs. Farnsworth, "you are the hero! You have been the hero from the hour the story began. If you should desert us now, whatever should we do?"

"If I'm the hero," I replied in her own key, "I shall begin making love to Alice at once."

Alice, far from being disturbed by my declaration, nodded her head approvingly.

"Oh, we had expected that! But you needn't be in a hurry. In a story like this one, that runs right on from

Lesson I April 4 Second Quarter

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

EASTER LESSON.—Luke 24:13-25.

GOLDEN TEXT.—Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?—Uke 24:26.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Story of a Wonderful Walk.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Walk to Emmaus.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Proofs That Jesus Rose From the Dead.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Fact and the Meaning of the Resurrection.

I. Two Disciples Journeying to Emmaus (vv. 13-10).

1. Who they were. One was Cleopas (see v. 18); some think the other was Luke, whose modesty forbade him to give his name; but it is not definitely known. Why they were going we can only conjecture; perhaps they were only walking away from Jerusalem to relieve their anxiety and drown their sorrow. The ordeal through which they had passed left them somewhat stunned; they needed the physical exertion and quiet of the country to calm their nerves. They were sad (see v. 17).

2. What they talked about (v. 14). "All the things which had happened. Strange and wonderful things had taken place and they could not but commune together concerning them."

3. Jesus joins them (vv. 15, 16). It was while they communed together and reasoned about Jesus that he appeared to them. He never leaves those in doubt who sincerely seek the light; he promises to meet even with two or three who gather in his name (Matt. 18:20). Those gathered in his name have their heart toward him in love, and their talk is concerning him. If we would have Jesus draw near to us more frequently then let us more frequently commune together concerning him.

II. The Conversation on the Way. (vv. 17-27).

1. Jesus' question (v. 17). Though he was a stranger to them his question did not provoke resentment; there must have been something in his manner and tone which unlocked their hearts.

2. The disciples' answer (vv. 18-24). Though surprised that there should be a single man in the confines of Jerusalem unacquainted with the things which had recently come to pass, they spoke fully and freely of what they had communed about.

DEBORAH AND BARAK DELIVER ISRAEL.—Judges 4:4-5:31.

day to day, we must leave a lot to chance. And there are ever so many chances—"

"Not all on the side of failure, I hope?"

"We must be going," she laughed. I wished she hadn't that characteristic little turn of the head that was so beguiling!

Folly rode with us all the way to Barton. If anything sensible was uttered on the drive, I can't recall it. Our talk, chiefly of knights and ladies, and wild flights from imaginary enemies, had the effect of spurring Flynn to perilous spurts of speed.

"Flynn has caught the spirit!" cried Alice exultingly. "Haven't you, Flynn?"

Flynn, turning to confirm this, caused the car to swerve and graze a truck piled high with household goods.

"We may elude the pursuing knights," I suggested, "but some village constable may take it into his head to pinch us."

"Oh, that would be lovely," cried Alice. "And we'll telegraph dear Mr. Torrence to come and bail us out."

Miss Mildred Prall returned home this morning from a short visit with friends in Brownstown.

No need to have chapped hands

Chapped skin is uncomfortable and unsightly. Why have it when Turpo gives relief? Dry the skin thoroughly every time you wash, then rub in Turpo. See how soft and smooth the skin becomes and how fine it feels!

Turpo is a wonderful home remedy. It sterilizes, it soothes, it heals. Nothing like it for colds, headaches, cuts, burns, pains and ailments of all kinds.

Turpo is rich in the virtues of Turpentine, Camphor and Menthol, three of the time remedies as safe to use as they are effective. Get a jar from your druggist today.

(1) It was concerning Jesus of Nazareth (v. 19). This Jesus was mighty in word and deed before God and the people. (2) Delivered, condemned and crucified by the chief priests (v. 20). (3) Shattered hopes of the disciples (v. 21). They had reposed their hope in him as the Redeemer of Israel. (4) Their bewilderment (vv. 22-24). The story of the women concerning the empty sepulchre reminded them of Christ's words that he would arise on the third day. A new hope seemed to be arising in their hearts, yet they were too timid to take their stand upon it. (5) Jesus expounding the Scriptures to them (vv. 25-27). He chides them for their unbelief of the prophetic Scriptures (v. 25). What sorrow and perplexity they would have escaped had they believed what God had recorded! Jesus showed them that what had happened was exactly what the Scriptures had foretold concerning the Messiah and that it behooved Christ thus to suffer and to enter into his glory.

III. The Lord Reveals Himself (vv. 28-35).

1. Nearing the end of the journey (vv. 28, 29). He made as though he would go farther, but they constrained him to abide with them. It would have been a great loss to them if he had not been "constrained."

2. Sitting together at the table (vv. 30, 31). His blessing of the bread and breaking it were so familiar that they knew him. Then, too, they may have seen the nailprints in his hands while he broke the bread. They now knew for a certainty that the Lord whom they had mourned as dead was alive and in their very presence. If we had eyes to perceive we could see Jesus daily walking and talking with us. What a different life would be ours if we would but see him!

3. The disciples convinced (vv. 32-35). They at once returned to Jerusalem and reported to the eleven what things were done and how the Lord had revealed himself to them in the breaking of the bread. They exclaimed, "The Lord is risen indeed!" May Christ come to every believer on this Easter occasion in such a way that we may know beyond the peradventure of a doubt that he is really alive!

First Methodist Church.

Chas. W. Whitman, Pastor.

The services this evening will close the Passion week service and will be of special interest. The choir will render the Sacred Cantata—"The Crucifixion" by Stainer. It will be in keeping with the spirit of this day in the life of Jesus to render this program in this service. The choir have made special preparations for this song service and should have a large hearing. It will be the best service of the week and will inspire our mind and heart for the services on Easter Sunday. Every member of our church should attend this evening service.

Last evening Dr. L. T. Freeland, District Supt. gave a very helpful message on "The Lessons of the Cross." At the close of this service the second quarterly conference for this year was held and reports testified to the splendid condition of the various departments of the church. The general tone of the church life is in healthful condition.

one more state ratifies the amendment there will be no question but that women will be entitled to participate in the Indiana primaries. Many local women who are interested in affairs political have inquired about the situation.

Governor Goodrich is expected to appoint the members of the state election board in the near future and these commissioners will be charged with the duty of deciding whether or not women may participate in the primaries. Women who would vote the Democratic ticket are not concerned in this ruling inasmuch as there are no Democratic presidential candidates in Indiana. Republican women, however, are much interested and many of them want to have a voice in the primary election.

Frederick E. Shortemeyer, secretary of the Republican state committee, called on Governor Goodrich early this week and urged that steps be taken to settle the question within the next few days. After his conference with the Governor, Mr. Shortemeyer said:

"There are two opposing legal opinions as to whether, under the existing laws, women can vote for presidential candidate at the primary, May 4. If the women have this right, we certainly want them to have the privilege of exercising it and it is my intention to see that nothing is left undone toward a definite determination of their legal rights in this matter without further delay."

It is thought that Governor Goodrich will dispose of the matter by appointing a state board of election commissioners to pass on it and other election matters. This commission will serve from the date of its appointment until after the general election next November.

The law provides that a state board of election commissioners shall be appointed at least thirty days prior to the general election. The Governor by law is its head. The chairman of the two leading parties may each nominate a man to serve on the commission. The attorney general usually is a member of the commission as the representative of the state legal department.

W. W. Spencer was the Democrat and Alexander G. Cavins was the Republican on the last commission. It is expected that the two party chairmen will nominate their men soon and that the commission may be instructed by next week.

Confusion in the woman vote situation in Indiana exists because of the fact that legal advisors for both Democratic and Republican central committees have said that women can not vote at the primary under the present law, while the state legal department holds an opposite view, although Ele Stansbury, attorney general, has not handed down a formal opinion.

Andrew Rust bought the Jacob Shney place consisting of seven acres Thursday at public sale, paying $3,280.00. The personal property all brought good prices. The sale was conducted by J. P. Ahl, auctioneer.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 10c and 25c.

QUOTAS ASSIGNED IN THIS DISTRICT

Jackson County Asked to Contribute
$7,874.48 for The Inter-
Church World Movement.

BASED ON WAR WORK QUOTAS

Money Will Be Asked of Those Who
Are Not Affiliated With Any
Religious Denomination.

The Rev. Walfred Lindstrom, district director of the Inter-Church World Movement, has received a list of the money quotas assigned for the eight counties under his supervision. The contributions to be made in this class will come from individuals who are not affiliated with any religious denomination. The various churches have conducted or are now waging campaigns for their respective apportionments. Those in charge of the Inter-Church World Movement hope to carry the campaign into every family in the United States and for this reason the financial drives are made among church members, who are placed in Class A, and also among non-church members who constitute Class B.

Jackson county has a quota of $7,874.48. This is the largest quota given to any of the eight counties in this district with the exception of Floyd which was assigned a quota of $9,861.45.

The quotas for the eight counties in Mr. Lindstrom's district follow: Clark, $7,377.34; Crawford, $2,227.86; Floyd, $9,861.45; Harrison, $3,785.46; Washington, $4,153.61; Orange, $3,387.23; Scott, $1,385.16; Jackson, $7,874.48. The total amount to be raised in this district is $40,052.59.

The quotas were based on the war work campaign allotments, 26.5 per cent. of each county quota being assigned for the Inter-Church movement. Mr. Lindstrom has established district headquarters in this city and has effective an active organization for the accomplishment of the task before him.

AGED COLORED WOMAN DIES THURSDAY NIGHT

Mrs. Mariah Bisit Dies of Cancer—Was Born in Slavery and Lived in Bondage Many Years.

Mrs. Mariah Bisit, an aged colored woman, died at her home at 714 West Laurel street, Thursday night at 11:30 following several weeks' illness with a cancer of the face. The deceased's exact age is not known.

Mrs. Bisit was born in slavery and lived in bondage until her early womanhood. She was born on a plantation in Kentucky and her parents are unknown. One son, Isaac Wilson, was also born in slavery, he having been eight years old when the mother received her freedom. After being set free Mrs. Bisit took her son to Louisville where she resided for a number of years. She was married to Hatch Bisit at Louisville after receiving her freedom. He died several years ago.

The deceased was a resident of this city about forty years. The funeral service will be held from the home Saturday afternoon at 2:30 conducted by Rev. Daniels. Burial in Riverview cemetery.

Summer Weather Routed.

Chicago, April 2—Summer weather in middle western states was routed today with rain, hail, wind and snow storms. Chicago awoke today to find bleak weather followed by a light fall of snow and gusts of wind. In Oklahoma a gale blew down twelve houses and injured one man. Severe blizzards struck the Dakotas.

MOST FIRMS HERE WILL FILE BLANKS

Many Unincorporated Concerns Have Already Answered Supplemental Tax Questions.

AGENT OF STATE BOARD HERE

Ready to Explain Purpose of Form to Dealers—Says Opposition is Due to Misunderstanding.

That no concerted effort will be made by the unincorporated concerns in this city to challenge the authority of the state tax board to require such firms to file supplemental tax blanks, is the belief of E. S. Himebaugh, assessor of Jackson township. A number of these firms have already answered the questions asked by the state board, it is stated, and the others are expected to furnish the information within the time specified by the tax commissioners. Mr. Himebaugh has explained to dealers who have entered protests that it is his duty to demand that the supplemental blanks be filed and that if any firm or partnership refuses to comply with such request he has no other alternative but to report them to the state board. Dealers who oppose the blank form recognize that Mr. Himebaugh must conduct his work in conformity with the rules laid down by the state board and that he has no option as to what course he will take.

Recently a movement was on foot among some unincorporated concerns here to contest the rule of the state tax board requiring unincorporated firms to file statements in addition to the regular tax schedule, revealing their financial condition. Some of the business men affected by the order were of the opinion that the

The Indiana University R. O. T. C. and band which gave a band concert and drill at Brownstown last night attracted hundreds of people to the town. A special program was arranged by the Brownstown people, one feature of which was a basketball game between the I. The students enjoyed the hospitality of Brownstown people over night and this morning left for Salem where they will give a concert and drill at 8 o'clock tonight. The delegation was scheduled to go from Brownstown to Columbus and give a concert in this city enroute but a change was made in the program and Columbus has been omitted.

The students are traveling in seven large army trucks and were accompanied by seventeen army officers and truck drivers from Camp Taylor. From Salem they will go to Paoli and from there to West Baden where they will end their tour Saturday night.

VOTING BY WOMEN IS OPEN QUESTION

Confusion Exists Relative to Their Participation in the Primaries on Tuesday, May 4.

DECISION TO BE MADE SOON

Election Commissioners to be Appointed by Governor Will Settle Controversy.

Although conflicting reports have been in circulation here and elsewhere in Indiana relative to the participation of women in the primaries to be held Tuesday, May 4, the question is still open and final decision may be left to the state board of election commissioners to be named by Governor Goodrich. An Indianapolis dispatch recently stated that the attorney-general had ruled that women were entitled to vote in the primaries but this ruling, it appears, did not refer to the selection of presidential candidates.

The status of women voting for presidential candidates in the primaries depends upon the ratification of the suffrage amendment to the federal constitution, it is stated, and if

Indianapolis, April 2—Charles Conway, Democrat of Friendship, Ind., today filed the declaration of his candidacy in the congressional race in the Fourth district.

Announcement that Charles Conway had entered the congressional primary race came as a surprise to local Democrats. Clarence E. Custer, of Columbus, Dr. J. A. Craig, of Greenwood and Harry A. Campbell of Batesville, have been waging aggressive campaigns and it was generally believed here that no other aspirants would announce. Tomorrow is the last day for filing declarations of candidacy.

Indianapolis, April 2—A cold wave will strike Indiana tonight, the weather bureau announced today, and the mercury will go down to about twenty degrees. RAIL WORKERS ASK INCREASED WAGES

President Notified of Appeal of 2,000,000 Men to Transportation Labor Board.

REQUEST FILED BY JEWELL

If Scale is Revised as Requested Advances Will Total $1,000,000 Annually.

Washington, April 2—President Bert Jewell of the railroad department, American Federation of Labor, today notified President Wilson that 2,000,000 railway workers will appeal to the transportation labor board for wage increases totalling $1,000,000,000 annually. Jewell forwarded to the White House the correspondence between railway executives and union leaders which resulted in the breakup yesterday of the joint conference called by President Wilson to agree to new wage schedules. The union men charged the railway executives with refusal to comply with the Esch-Cummings transportation act. This was in a letter to Chairman Whittier of the

VIOLENT PROTEST MADE AGAINST HOME RULE ACT

Sinn Fein Leader Denies the Organization is Responsible for Death of MacCurtain.

Dublin, April 2—The apparent assured success of Prime Minister Lloyd George's new home rule bill and charges in the London press that Thomas MacCurtain, lord mayor of Cork, recently assassinated, was killed by the Sinn Feins have aroused a storm of protest here today against British rule in Ireland. Newspapers were unanimous in their attacks upon the prime minister's new plan for home rule.

"The bill surrenders three-fourth of Ireland to anarchy and plants a cancer in the very heart of the empire," the Irish Times declared. The charge that MacCurtain was killed by the Sinn Feins of which he was a member, was denied by Arthur Griffiths, acting president of the organization.

DEMOCRATS SEE FAILURE OF MOVE

Declare Senate Republicans Will be Unable to Force Passage of Peace Resolution.

OPPOSITION OF PRESIDENT

Wilson Said to Have Told Advisors That He Will Refuse to Sign Resolution.

By United Press.

Washington, April 2—Republican leaders in congress will not be able to muster enough votes to pass their peace resolution over a veto of the President, leading house Democrats declared today after a canvass.

Both Champ Clark, Missouri, Democratic floor leader and Representative Flood, Virginia ranking minority member of the foreign affairs committee, stated it would be impossible for the Republicans to force the resolution through by a two-thirds majority necessary to override a veto.

President Wilson has indicated to close advisers that he will not sign the resolution, which if Democratic predictions as to the house vote are true, means that a legal peace will not come until the senate and the president have agreed on some kind of a treaty. This in all probability will not be until after the elections unless the president yields to the senate's reservations.

Democrats are massing their forces for an attack on the resolution when it comes up in the house. Pressure is being exerted by administration leaders outside congress. Homer S. Cummings chairman of the Democratic national committee, is expected to confer with house leaders during the next few days and urge them to stand by the president.

Determination of Democratic party leaders to use the Republican peace resolution against its authors as campaign material was evidenced, Democrats said today by the statement of Homer Cummings with regard to the resolution.

Cummings who said he had "no difficulty" finding out what President Wilson thought about things, declared the peace resolution was the "lowest ebb of moral incapacity to which Republican leadership has yet sunk."

INCREASED WAGES PASSED TO PUBLIC

Higher Coal Prices to Become Effective Immediately. Operators Have Announced.

INDIANA COAL IS HIGHER

Federal Regulation of Prices Removed When New Agreement Goes Into Force.

By United Press.

Chicago, April 2—A general increase in retail coal prices will be passed on to the general public today or tomorrow to pay for wage increases to miners retail coal dealers of the middle west predicted today. With the removal of federal regulations of coal prices effective yesterday, coal operators announced increases immediately effective.

Today some retailers were still selling at the March prices, but this, they explained, was due to the fact that the new prices had not been received from the operators. Increases will range from 25 cents to $1 a ton.

Chicago dealers today said they expected to quote higher prices this week. Only one increase has been effective. Pocahontas coal has been boosted $1 a ton. Consumers in Indiana have already been assessed.

Dealers have added 25 cents a ton to the price of Indiana nut and slack and West Virginia split.

At Detroit, Oklahoma City, St. Paul and Denver there have been no increases, but dealers say there will be. Coal in Denver today was selling slightly below March first prices, due to a "glut on the market."

At Des Moines reports indicated a general advance of ten percent. throughout Iowa, an average increase of 75 cents a ton. Even Los Angeles boosted its coal prices. Coal there today was selling for $16 a ton as compared with $15 last year.

At Milwaukee, the price of coke was advanced 75 cents for all grades.

Dealers in St. Paul raised prices slightly. Coal delivered to factories was raised five cents and to residences thirty cents.

Coal in San Francisco was $1 a ton higher today than last September when it sold for $14.50 a ton.

An increase of 45 cents a ton was recorded at Springfield, Ills. Dealers in Lincoln Neb. predict that prices are going 25 per cent. higher.

Prospects for increased cost of coal this month is jumping prices of building materials. All prospects requiring coal in their manufacture are affected.

MINOR RAILROAD STRIKES THREATENED IN MID-WEST

Switchmen on Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad Quit at Chicago.

By United Press.

Chicago, April 2—Minor strikes of railroad employees were threatened or in progress throughout the middle west today. Following a walkout of 3,000 Pennsylvania railroad employees at Ft. Wayne, Ind., yesterday, 700 switchmen and switch tenders of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad here were on strike today. They demanded a pay increase of nearly 50 per cent. The night shift of the shopmen at Ft. Wayne also joined the strikers who went out yesterday morning. The total number now out in that district is estimated at 3,200. These men are striking to enforce the "closed shop." An embargo has been placed on freight shipments there.

NEW COAL PRICES.

The new agreement between the coal miners and operators, effective April 1, under which the former consent to continue work in consideration of a 20 per cent. wage increase, means that retail coal prices will be advanced immediately. The operators have not decided just how much will be added to the present prices but have announced that the increase will not be less than a $1 or a $1.25 a ton. This is sufficient to let the consumer know that he will pay well for the boost given the miners.

The miners' representatives present figures to show that the increased scale ought not result in an advance of more than 25 cents a ton. Possibly they are not taking into account any added expense which would be charged to the consumer after the coal is mined and before it is delivered, but the most liberal figures will not warrant an increase of $1.25 in the retail price.

Let us suppose that the new wage scale means an advance of 30 cents a ton. The operator will expect a profit of one-third on the increase or 10 cents. The jobber will increase his handling charges at least the same amount and the retailer would also be entitled to a similar profit. The total, including the increase at the mines, would not exceed 60 cents. These profits, it must be borne in mind, are in addition to those already made by the operator, jobber and retailer.

But if the operators decide to advance the price $1.25 a ton, the consumer is practically helpless. He has no commission to which he may appeal. He must rely entirely upon the honesty and fair dealing of the operator. The public is of the opinion that the present high coal prices

THE PRIMARY LAW.

Despite the operation of the primary law there are some political leaders who desire that the delegates to the national conventions be uninstructed. W. G. McAdoo, a Democratic presidential candidate, has appealed to the Democrats in several states to send delegates without definite instructions. Some Republican leaders want the nomination to be determined by the delegates without regard to the sentiment in the states from which they come.

The effect of an uninstructed delegation is the same as if the primary law were not in operation. This law is designed to get the majority views of the voters and if it is not used for that purpose it would be better that we return to the convention system. The primary law is expensive. Despite arguments to the contrary only men who have unlimited means are financially able to make the race.

So long as we have the primary law the delegates to the national conventions ought to be guided by the sentiment of the voters. The law provides that no state delegation is bound by the primary decision until a candidate receives a majority vote. Frequently this is impossible because of the number of candidates in the field for a particular office, yet if the vote is disregarded altogether the purpose of the primary system is defeated. Whether the primary law is good or bad, we ought to carry out its intention so long as it remains on the statute books.

Great Britain, recently emerged from a World conflict, doesn't seem to worry much about the declaration of war proclaimed by the leader of the rebel forces in Turkey.

SOCIAL EVENTS

SUMNER-GLASSON.

A very pretty wedding took place Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Rev. R. T. Gwyn, 316 University Avenue, Indianapolis, when Miss Edna Sumner, of Seymour, became the bride of Claude Mason Glasson, a prosperous Redding township farmer.

Before returning to this city Mr. and Mrs. Glasson will visit in Philadelphia and other eastern points. They will be at home to their friends after April 15th at their newly furnished home, north of Reddingtown.

The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sumner, corner Poplar and Fifth streets. She graduated from the local high school with the class of 1917, and is also a graduate of the Seymour Business College.

The groom who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Glasson, of Redding township, graduated from the Shields high school in 1916, and until recently was employed in the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad offices in this city.

Rev. and Mrs. Gwyn entertained Thursday evening at their home in Indianapolis, with a six o'clock dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Glasson.

Both the bride and groom are popular in Seymour society circles and have the best wishes of their many friends.

INDIANA STUDY CLUB.

The fifth and last lecture of a series by Mrs. Demarchus Brown, Indianapolis, before the Indiana Study Club was given Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Thomas Groub, corner Poplar and Seventh streets. The subject was "Disraeli."

Mrs. R. J. Barbour, president of the club, opened the meeting, introducing the speaker.

Mrs. Brown took up the study of Disraeli in three chapters, or personalities, as a dandy, a novelist and a politician. Benjamin Disraeli, despite his heritage, was one of the most powerful men of the nineteenth century.

Disraeli's ancestors originally were in Spain, but left that country because of the persecutions by Queen Isabelle and King Ferdinand, going to Venice, where they resided for some time. Here the family name was changed to Disraeli, honoring the Italian God, Jacob. The grandfather of Benjamin Disraeli was the first of his family to go to England.

Benjamin Disraeli was born in 1804, and when he was thirteen years of age the family went into the church of England. Because of his struggles in public school life on account of his race, he was educated under private tutelage. At the age of twenty-two his first novel was published, Vivian Gray. This was the first political novel in English literature. In containing Fleming, he pictured his early school life.

Mrs. Brown pointed out that his determination in life was to remove the ban from the Jewish nation, and pointed out how his early novels were devoted to this ambition.

In 1837 he entered the house of commons and at the age of sixty-two was made prime minister.

Mrs. Brown is a speaker of remarkable ability and her lectures in this city have been a source of much enjoyment and inspiration to the members of the club and their friends who have been privileged to attend.

6 hard cooked eggs	1/2 lemon
1 cup cooked peas	4 tablespoons butter substitute, salt and pepper to taste
4 tablespoons flour

Shell and cut each egg in half. Cut slice of Star Bread to suit serving dish. notch it round with a sharp knife and scoop it out so as to form large case. Fry golden brown in hot fat. Melt half the butter substitute in small pan,

Attention Sir Knights Seymour Commandery 56.

It has been suggested that owing to the several new Sir Knights who have not as yet received their uniforms due to inability of manufacturers to get them out in time that those Sir Knights who find themselves unable to go to North Vernon for Easter services loan their uniforms to the un-uniformed Sir Knights for the occasion. If you care to do so kindly call Recorder phone L 552 and he will make necessary arrangements to get your uniform and will see that it is properly taken care of and returned to you promptly on the following Monday.

SHE NOW SLEEPS LIKE WELL CHILD WHOLE OF NIGHT

Indianapolis Woman Suffering From Insomnia Finds Relief After Taking Trutona.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 1—"I simply can not find words to express thankfulness for the relief Trutona has given me, and I am telling all of my friends about it," said Mrs. Mary Mahoney, a well-known Indianapolis woman of 509 Kentucky Avenue, recently. Mrs. Mahoney then continued thusly:

"For several years I have been taking every kind of medicine in an effort to get relief from constipation, nervousness and insomnia. For the past six months I could hardly sleep at all. Although I'd go to bed at nine o'clock it would often be early morning before I'd fall asleep."

"I had always been bothered with constipation more or less, until I began using Trutona. I've been taking Trutona for about two weeks now, and the result is that I sleep the whole night long like a well child. I'm not a bit nervous any more and my bowels are as regular as clock-work."

"I've taken a barrel of different medicines but 'Trutona is the only one that ever helped me. I want every one troubled as I was, to try Trutona for I know it will help them, as it did me."

Trutona's healthful action reaches every portion of the body, and performs its work faithfully and efficiently. Trutona rebuilds diseased nerves and tissues, creates a healthful appetite, and assists in the assimilation and digestion of the food.

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Seymour at W. L. Federmann's Drug Store.

MINSTREL.

The Minstrel given at the Park Mission last night was a great success. Fully fifteen minutes before the program began every seat in the house was taken and standing room was at a premium. There was a good attendance.

After the opening song a telegram was received announcing that the end men had missed their car but would be present later in the evening. The impatient audience could not be asked to await their arrival so it was decided to continue the program without them. At this time however, both entered shouting "April Fool," and the minstrel program was resumed in jokes and song. Two solos, "Indiana Moon" and "That Tantalizing Fox Trot Melody," rendered by Leonard Bartlett, were well applauded. Earl Smyth sang "Let the Rest of the World Go By," to the delight of those in attendance.

The Hen Roost Club, composed of Lawson Williams, Merrill Harsh, Fred Nuss and Earl Dieck, caused much laughter when they held their regular meeting at the opening number of the second part. A specialty by Grover Marquette and Robert Clark, featuring mental telepathy, was quite humorously delivered, as the second number. A monologue by John McMurray was next after which the closing songs were rendered.

The assistance of Mrs. John McMurray, at the piano and Norman Barkman, violinist, added much to the evening's program. Mr. Barkman and daughters rendered several selections at the opening and during the intermission that were appreciated by all. It is estimated that about $50 was netted which will be given to the Park Mission building fund by the Who-Do class.

Committees have been appointed and a musical and literary program is being arranged. A luncheon will also be served.

The members of the general committee in charge of the arrangements are Mrs. D. A. Baird, chairman, Mrs. Elizabeth Brethauer and Miss Sadie Grace Myers. The members of the entertaining committee are Mrs. T. P. Ross, Mrs. Elsie Moses, Mrs. Kate Shepard and Mrs. Emma Lewis.

COULDN'T RAISE HAND TO HEAD

Bloomington Man is Back On Job Every Day Now—Gains Thirty-three Pounds.

"Well, sir, I only weighed one hundred and twenty-nine pounds when I commenced taking Tanlac, and now I tip the scales at one hundred and sixty-two, which gives me a gain of thirty-three pounds, and I claim that any medicine that will help a man that much who has been suffering for twelve long years is worth talking about," said I. T. Augustus, who lives at Hill's Hotel, Bloomington, Ill., the other day.

"I spend most of my spare time telling folks about Tanlac," continued Mr. Augustus, "for it is the only medicine that has done me any good at all since I commenced to have rheumatism and stomach trouble a good many years ago. Nobody except myself will ever know how I suffered during all those years. Sometimes my legs would actually swell to almost twice their natural size, and the pain was so severe I could hardly stand it. My arms were in the same condition and more than half the time I couldn't raise my hands to my head. Then my stomach went back on me, and everything I ate would disagree with me and cause me to suffer like blue blazes afterwards. Sometimes I would have such bad cramping pains I would have to call in a doctor before I could get any relief. As the years went by, my condition gradually got worse, and I finally had to give up my job as I was not able to do my work."

"I tell you, I was badly discouraged over my condition, and I hardly knew which way to turn, but one of my friends told me about Tanlac, and advised me to give it a trial. Well, I got a bottle of this medicine, and it's the honest truth, I was feeling like a different man by the time I had finished my first bottle. I saw then that I had found the right medicine, and I just kept on taking Tanlac until it finally overcame my troubles completely, and now I am as well and strong as I ever was in my life. I never had such an appetite, and everything I eat agrees with me all right. The rheumatism has left me altogether, and I never have a sign of stomach trouble any more. I am back on the job every day in the week now, and just feel fine all the time. I sure believe in Tanlac, and as long as I live I will praise it for overcoming my troubles after everything else I tried had failed."

Tanlac is sold in Seymour by Maxon's Pharmacy, and in Crothersville, by C. W. Taulman, and in Brownstown by Chas. Brock.

RAIL WORKERS ASK INCREASED WAGES

railroad executive wage committee who notified the union men the executives could not go on with the joint conference. Whittier wrote that the wage demands were too large for the executives to grant on their own responsibility without the approval of the public.

Jewell's reply read in part: "Your committee has decided to comply with the plain provision of the law and assume the responsibility of railroad management with regard thereto and has not given consideration to the request of employees for reasonable and just pay based on the provision of section 307 of the transportation act."

"Your entire deliberation seemed to have been predicated upon the sole basis of the cost without regard to the justness of the request of railroad employees."

"The decision of your committee

forces us to appeal to the labor board under provisions of the transportation act and to so notify President Wilson."

tax commissioners were exceeding their authority and that they had no power to demand any information other than that which is required in the general tax schedule.

The matter was taken up in an informal way at a recent meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. The committee that was appointed to conduct the investigation has been informed by some attorneys that the state board probably does not have authority to require this statement to be filed. At the same time, it is admitted, that the state board is authorized by the new tax law to lay down certain rules and regulations for the conduct of its affairs and that if the proprietor of any unincorporated business refuses to answer the questions in the supplemental blank he may be called before the state board. It is said that if any local dealer who refuses to fill out the blank should be summoned to the board before the board more than likely he would be asked the very questions contained in the blank. It is also pointed out that he would likely be questioned more closely in a personal interview than if the blank is filled out as required by the board.

The state tax commissioners are giving considerable attention to the situation here and its representatives have paid this city several visits for the purpose of checking up the progress that is made in the assessment of property in Jackson township. John Jamison, an agent of the board, was in the city yesterday for the second time within a week. He said he would be glad to discuss the purpose of the supplemental tax blank with any merchant or dealer who thought that the board is acting beyond its authority and he was confident that misunderstandings could be quickly cleared away. The confusion, in his opinion, is due to misunderstanding on the part of individuals as to the purpose of the questions.

Mr. Jamison reiterated that the questions asked of the unincorporated firms are practically the same as those asked of the corporations last year. He said there is no question but that the legislature has clothed the state tax board with all the authority which it has assumed and that the regulations which have been promulgated and which may appear drastic at this time have been formulated in the interest of the taxpayers so that assessments will be made equitably throughout the state. The blanks could not be made to apply to unincorporated concerns last year, he said, because of the rush of work attending the inauguration of the new law. Mr. Jamison said it is not the purpose of the tax blank to delve into any individual's business and that the questions do not require that earnings be listed. He said the blank is merely a supplemental form which will be considered along with the personal property schedule and was issued so as to place corporations and unincorporated concerns on the same basis so far as property valuations for purposes of taxation are concerned.

To The Farmers and Fruit Growers of Jackson County.

It is our pleasure to be back with you again to carry out the three years free service contract in the way of pruning, spraying and replacing all stock that has died, free of charge, sold you in 1918-1919. When this company first opened this territory many people were jealous of us and thought we would never return after the first delivery, because the proposition which we offer the farmer is so creamed. But this is the third year we have been in this section and you who now have these orchards growing are doubtless pleased with quality of stock received and also the service which we have endeavored to give. To those who have not bought, we refer you to your fortunate neighbor who did buy and now has his plants maturing and getting ready to bear fruit. Get in line with him by placing your order with us, and our Liberal Contract will assure your getting best goods and perfect service.

Some of our representatives hope to see you soon and add to our long list of pleased customers or to enlarge your contract if already bought of us.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN!

A New and Happy Helper

Joy Soap is one of the brightest products ever introduced to lighten the household cares of a woman.

As sewing machines, vacuum cleaners and ranges have eased and lightened some phases of woman's work, so Joy Soap has almost worked miracles in lessening house cleaning and dish washing problems.

It is a real worker—not a "work-with-it." Joy cuts up dirt and grease itself—you don't have to scrub it up. With just the lightest rubbing, so as to mix the lather in, Joy cleans clothes, windows, dishes and everything.

It is a distinct pleasure to use, because it is firm and white—not "soapy," sticky and yellow. Because of the firm, fine body, Joy lasts much longer and gives you greater returns for your money.

Women who try it are certainly delighted with it. They declare that it helps them to quicken and lessen their work, in a better way, leaving them more time for the little hours of leisure which are ordinarily eaten into by house cleaning.

It is fine to think that Joy Soap may be purchased at the same price you pay for other soaps. It brings you much more—yet only costs the same. Ask your grocer.

PLUMBER THOUGHT HE NEEDED NEW PIPES

"My stomach and intestines were always full of gas and I often had severe colic attacks. The pain and soreness caused me to think I needed a new set of pipes. Since taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy all this has disappeared and my only trouble now is to make enough dough to buy all the food I'd like to eat." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. All druggists.

WORKS HARD TO AVERT FLU EPIDEMIC

Government and City Health Officials Warn People to Keep Clean.

Stay Away from People with Coughs and Colds.

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza," says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply.

He advises an inexpensive home-made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and soothe and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Four three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and sniff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy.

Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arcine in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

HIGHEST QUALITY HIGHEST AWARDS

LADY LARKSPUR

By MEREDITH NICHOLSON

"They were spoiling my appetite; I was perfectly aware of that. I had ordered the best luncheon I knew how to compose, and they were doing full justice to it; but I was acting. I knew, like a resentful boy."

"I love you that way," said Alice as I stared vacantly at my plate. "But you really are not making yourself disagreeable to us—really he is not, Constance!"

Mrs. Farnsworth affirmed this. I knew that I was merely being rude, and the consciousness of this was not uplifting. At the luncheon hour the influx of shoppers gives the Tyingham a cheery tone, and all about us were people apparently conversing sanely and happily. The appearance of Uncle Bash's ghost in the familiar dining room would have been a welcome diversion. I was speculating as to just what he would say about his widow and the whole mess at Barton when Mrs. Farnsworth addressed me pleadingly.

"If you knew that we want you to play with us only a few days longer—three days, shall we say, Alice?—if you knew that then we'll untangle everything, wouldn't you be nice—very nice?"

In spite of myself I couldn't resist this appeal. I was more and more impressed by the fineness, the charm of Mrs. Farnsworth. When she dropped the make-believe foolishness in which she indulged quite as amusingly as Alice, she appeared to be a very sensible person. The humor danced in her eyes now, but her glance was more than an appeal; it was a command.

"If you knew that our troubles are not at all the troubles you're thinking about, but very different—"

"Please pardon me," I muttered humbly, and wished that Alice were not so bewitching in a sailor hat. It may have been the hat or only Mrs. Farnsworth's pleading tone that brought me to a friendlier attitude toward the universe and its visible inhabitants. The crowd thinned out, but we lingered, talking of all manner of things.

"We must come in again very soon," said Alice. "And next time we shall run away, which was very naughty. I suppose when you begin a story you just have to keep it going or it will die on your hands. That's the way with our story, you know. Of course it's unkind to mystify you; but you are in the story just as we are."

My mystification was certainly deep enough without this suggestion that I was a mere character in a tale whose awkward beginning aroused only the gravest apprehensions as to the conclusion. She looked at her watch and continued: "I'm so absurd—really I am, in ever so many ways, that no one would ever put me in a book. Everyone would say no such person ever existed! It's incredible! And so I have to pretend I'm in a story all the time. It's the only way I can keep happy. And so many people are in my story now, not only Montani and the poor fellow locked up at Barton—oh, what if he should escape! Constance, it would be splendid if he should escape!"

"You didn't finish your enumeration of characters," I suggested. "Is my part an important one or am I only a lay figure?"

"My dear boy," cried Mrs. Farnsworth, "you are the hero! You have been the hero from the hour the story began. If you should desert us now, whatever should we do?"

"If I'm the hero," I replied in her own key, "I shall begin making love to Alice at once."

Alice, far from being disturbed by my declaration, nodded her head approvingly.

"Oh, we had expected that! But you needn't be in a hurry. In a story like this one, that runs right on from

Lesson 1 April 4 Second Quarter SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON EASTER LESSON.—Luke 24:13-25.

GOLDEN TEXT.—Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?—Luke 24:26.

PRIMARY TOPIC.—The Story of a Wonderful Walk.
JUNIOR TOPIC.—The Walk to Emmaus.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC.—The Proofs That Jesus Rose From the Dead.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC.—The Fact and the Meaning of the Resurrection.

I. Two Disciples Journeying to Emmaus (vv. 13-10).

1. Who they were. One was Cleopas (see v. 18); some think the other was Luke, whose modesty forbade him to give his name; but it is not definitely known. Why they were going we can only conjecture; perhaps they were only walking away from Jerusalem to relieve their anxiety and drown their sorrow. The ordeal through which they had passed left them somewhat stunned; they needed the physical exertion and quiet of the country to calm their nerves. They were sad (see v. 17).

2. What they talked about (v. 14). "All the things which had happened." Strange and wonderful things had taken place and they could not but commune together concerning them.

3. Jesus joins them (vv. 15, 16). It was while they communed together and reasoned about Jesus that he appeared to them. He never leaves those in doubt who sincerely seek the light; he promises to meet even with two or three who gather in his name (Matt. 18:20). Those gathered in his name have their heart toward him in love, and their talk is concerning him. If we would have Jesus draw near to us more frequently then let us more frequently commune together concerning him.

II. The Conversation on the Way (vv. 17-27).

1. Jesus' question (v. 17). Though he was a stranger to them his question did not provoke resentment; there must have been something in his manner and tone which unlocked their hearts.

2. The disciples' answer (vv. 18-24). Though surprised that there should be a single man in the confines of Jerusalem unacquainted with the things which had recently come to pass, they spoke fully and freely of what they had communed about.

(1) It was concerning Jesus of Nazareth (v. 19). This Jesus was mighty in word and deed before God and the people. (2) Delivered, condemned and crucified by the chief priests (v. 20). (3) Shattered hopes of the disciples (v. 21). They had reposed their hope in him as the Redeemer of Israel. (4) Their bewilderment (vv. 22-24). The story of the women concerning the empty sepulchre reminded them of Christ's words that he would arise on the third day. A new hope seemed to be arising in their hearts, yet they were too timid to take their stand upon it. (5) Jesus expounding the Scriptures to them (vv. 25-27). He chides them for their unbelief of the prophetic Scriptures (v. 25). What sorrow and perplexity they would have escaped had they believed what God had recorded! Jesus showed them that what had happened was exactly what the Scriptures had foretold concerning the Messiah and that it behooved Christ thus to suffer and to enter into his glory.

III. The Lord Reveals Himself (vv. 28-35).

1. Nearing the end of the journey (vv. 28, 29). He made as though he would go farther, but they constrained him to abide with them. It would have been a great loss to them if he had not been "constrained."

2. Sitting together at the table (vv. 30, 31). His blessing of the bread and breaking it were so familiar that they knew him. Then, too, they may have seen the nailprints in his hands while he broke the bread. They now knew for a certainty that the Lord whom they had mourned as dead was alive and in their very presence. If we had eyes to perceive we could see Jesus daily walking and talking with us. What a different life would be ours if we would but see him!

3. The disciples convinced (vv. 32-35). They at once returned to Jerusalem and reported to the eleven what things were done and how the Lord had revealed himself to them in the breaking of the bread. They exclaimed: "The Lord is risen indeed!" May Christ come to every believer on this Easter occasion in such a way that we may know beyond the peradventure of a doubt that he is really alive!

Lesson Text for Sunday, April 11 DEBORAH AND BARAK DELIVER ISRAEL.—Judges 4:4-5:31.

day to day, we must leave a lot to chance. And there are ever so many chances—"

"Not all on the side of failure, I hope?"

"We must be going," she laughed. I wished she hadn't that characteristic little turn of the head that was so beguiling!

Folly rode with us all the way to Barton. If anything sensible was uttered on the drive, I can't recall it. Our talk, chiefly of knights and ladies, and wild flights from imaginary enemies, had the effect of spurring Flynn to pellious spurts of speed.

"Flynn has caught the spirit!" cried Alice, exultingly. "Haven't you, Flynn?"

Flynn, turning to confirm this, caused the car to swerve and graze a truck piled high with household goods.

"We may elude the pursuing knights," I suggested, "but some village constable may take it into his head to pinch us."

"Oh, that would be lovely," cried Alice. "And we'll telegraph dear Mr. Torrence to come and bail us out."

First Methodist Church.

Chas. W. Whitman, Pastor.

The services this evening will close the Passion week service and will be of special interest. The choir will render the Sacred Cantata—"The Crucifixion" by Stainer. It will be in keeping with the spirit of this day in the life of Jesus to render this program in this service. The choir have made special preparations for this song service and should have a large hearing. It will be the best service of the week and will inspire our mind and heart for the services on Easter Sunday. Every member of our church should attend this evening service.

Last evening Dr. L. T. Freeland, District Supt. gave a very helpful message on "The Lessons of the Cross." At the close of this service the second quarterly conference for this year was held and reports testified to the splendid condition of the various departments of the church. The general tone of the church life is in healthful condition.

one more state ratifies the amendment there will be no question but that women will be entitled to participate in the Indiana primaries. Many local women who are interested in affairs political have inquired about the situation.

Governor Goodrich is expected to appoint the members of the state election board in the near future and these commissioners will be charged with the duty of deciding whether or not women may participate in the primaries. Women who would vote the Democratic ticket are not concerned in this ruling inasmuch as there are no Democratic presidential candidates in Indiana. Republican women, however, are much interested and many of them want to have a voice in the primary election.

Frederick E. Shortemeier, secretary of the Republican state committee, called on Governor Goodrich early this week and urged that steps be taken to settle the question within the next few days. After his conference with the Governor, Mr. Shortemeier said:

"There are two opposing legal opinions as to whether, under the existing laws, women can vote for presidential candidate at the primary, May 4. If the women have this right, we certainly want them to have the privilege of exercising it and it is my intention to see that nothing is left undone toward a definite determination of their legal rights in this matter without further delay."

It is thought that Governor Goodrich will dispose of the matter by appointing a state board of election commissioners to pass on it and other election matters. This commission will serve from the date of its appointment until after the general election, next November.

The law provides that a state board of election commissioners shall be appointed at least thirty days prior to the general election. The Governor by law is its head. The chairman of the two leading parties may each nominate a man to serve on the commission. The attorney general usually is a member of the commission as the representative of the state legal department.

W. W. Spencer was the Democrat and Alexander G. Carvins was the Republican on the last commission. It is expected that the two party chairmen will nominate their men soon and that the commission may be instructed by next week.

Confusion in the woman vote situation in Indiana exists because of the fact that legal advisors for both Democratic and Republican central committees have said that women can not vote at the primary under the present law, while the state legal department holds an opposite view, although Ele Stansbury, attorney general, has not handed down a formal opinion.

Andrew Rust bought the Jacob Shney place, consisting of seven acres Thursday at public sale, paying $3,280.00. The personal property all brought good prices. The sale was conducted by J. P. Ahl, auctioneer.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 10c and 25c.
